DISORDERED SOULS

Stories by Tom Bussmann

Tom Bussmann's audacious new collection of stories is a sardonic & erotic Spoon River Anthology set in St. Louis. The real-life "disordered souls" who populate these tales include Ambrose Bierce, William S. Burroughs, Raymond Chandler, Dashiell Hammett, Fanny Hurst, Kate Chopin, Virginia Mayo, and many others.

Using fictional first person accounts, Bussmann cleverly reveals the "forces of disorder and decline" that have raged around us.

NEW URGE EDITIONS is an imprint of Black Scat Books

ABOUT THE AUTHOR:

Tom Bussmann received a BFA from Washington University where he made films and videos, wrote screenplays, and was a student of William Gass and Stanley Elkin. His study of aesthetics eventually included subjects such as pornography, post-modernism, and intertextuality. Disordered Souls is his first book of stories. He is working on a second one.
